

4 Ways To Use Our Search Tool

Shipping companies always seek out effective tools to streamline essential business communications efficiently. With reMARK's email search tool, they now have an ideal solution to swiftly and precisely locate the right emails within their inbox. Read about our email search options and what they have to offer.

01

Search Module

A comprehensive search tool with various search criteria enables the user to find a specific email in an environment that could possibly hold millions.

02

Search Folder

The Search Folder allows users to attach popular searches for quick access but can also serve as a way to prioritize important emails based on metadata, content, or categories.

03

Instant Filtering

The quickest way to search which instantly filter emails based on column information in the active view, such as inboxes, folders, search results, and more.

04

Search Convenience

If the user is searching numerous topics, it can be helpful to use multiple tabs to navigate in multiple searches simultaneously. Also, the auto-highlight feature makes it easy to figure out why the email was matched to the search.

Our search tool provides users with advanced and specific search options that cater to their diverse search needs. Locate the information you need effortlessly and efficiently with reMARK's email search tool.